Oyster Roast, Barbeque & Auction: January 30th

In the beginning of every year, a group of intrepid social workers gobble down their weight in oysters, emboldened by distilled spirits and potato salad.

They stand waiting in the elements with giddy anticipation of the Great Auction Extravaganza hosted by the Maestro Himself, Fred Nadelman, LMSW, Auctioneer Extraordinaire, in the hopes of finding that perfect re-gifted remote-controlled shark skin back scratcher.

Ok, well perhaps it isn't that exciting, but the CSWA-S Annual Oyster Roast/ Auction/Barbecue Dinner is a lot of fun. On January 30th, we will be meeting at Gordon-Low Park in Gordonston, Savannah at 12:30pm for oysters, as well as barbecue with all of the fixins and trimmings for those land-lubbers too squeamish to enjoy Mother Nature's most concentrated little packages of zinc.

An auction will follow after everyone is stuffed to the gills, so please bring an item which you feel would be better suited on someone else's tchotchkie table. Proceeds will go towards the CSWA-S for future membership events.

So, dress casually, bring a friend, and be prepared to have a great time. The price of $20 per person will cover food and drinks (soft drinks, beer and wine.)

To RSVP and let us know whether you plan on eating oysters, BBQ, or both, please e-mail Helen Schandolph by January 15th at:
